

Monday, November 10, 2008

THE WEEK

- *Tuesday: Late day; 7th grade class meeting at 8:00 am in the dining room.
- *Wednesday: Choral Concert at 7:30 pm in Haertter Hall.
- *Thursday: Late day; boys' soccer quarterfinals.
- *Saturday: Blue & Gold Dance at 8:30 pm in the dining room.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- *Asian Culture Club: Meeting Tuesday in room 226.
- *Comedy Club: Meeting Tuesday at 8:00 am in lab 5.
- *Field Hockey: RSVPs to the banquet are needed!
- *KIVA: Meeting Tuesday at 8:15 am in Mr. Wagner's classroom.
- *Mad Bomber: Meeting Tuesday at 8:00 am in room 313.
- *Montgomery Plan: Meeting Tuesday at 8:00 am in the science auditorium. A weather stripping outing is in the works a week from Saturday. Details to come.
- *World: Layout Wednesday.
- *Yearbook: Meetings today and tomorrow at 3:00 pm.

KUDOS TO MUSICIANS

Last Monday, junior Jordan Gudmestad earned fourth trumpet seat and junior Russell Browning earned first tuba seat in the all metro honors band.

COMEDY CLUB

During assembly, a new comedy club delivered its first skit, sharing the five top hiding spots on campus. This was a you-had-to-be-there performance.

Thursday, November 6, 2008

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- *Blue & Gold Dance: Tickets are on sale in the bookstore. Students who arrive at the dance before 8:45 pm will be entered in raffles for several $100 gas cards. Students who arrive between 9:30 and 10:30 pm will be assessed a "late" fee.
- *Soccer: Boys' varsity faces Whitfield in district finals at 3:00 pm on Friday -- fans wanted.
- *SpoFo: Friday is the last day to sign up for the arm wrestling competition.
- *Lacrosse: Upper school girls who are interested in playing spring lacrosse should meet with Mr. Tasker at 3:00 pm today in room 309.
- World*: Layout is next Wednesday...get those articles written!
- *Yearbook: Meeting Sunday at 1:00 pm.

CYBERBULLYING

Lt. Joe Laramie, 29-year veteran of the Glendale Police Department and director of the Missouri Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, spoke to assembly about cyberbullying. See "Assembly Presentations" later today.

Wednesday, November 5, 2008

ANNOUNCEMENTS

*Election Debate: Last week's student presidential election debate results were announced: After the October 30 debate, all students were invited to electronically cast their votes for which team won the debate and for which candidate they would personally support. With almost 66 percent of the student body participating, the results of the two votes were statistically even: 25 percent supported McCain and the McCain debate team and 75 percent supported Obama and the Obama debate team. In making the announcement, Mr. Salomon mused that perhaps students heard what they wanted to hear.

*Powder Puff Football: A round robin of flag football will be played on Friday, November 21. All girls are invited to participate; boys are invited to ref or coach. Look for sign up sheets. T-shirt orders will be taken after lunch.

*Review: Meeting tomorrow at 7:30 am in Dr. Des Prez's classroom.

*SpoFo: Meeting tomorrow at 7:40 am in Mr. McKone's classroom.

YES WE CAN

Both Dr. Shahan and Brent Westbrook '11 spoke to the history that was made yesterday. See "Assembly Presentations" later today.

Tuesday, November 4, 2008

Vote!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

*Book Club: Next book is Portnoy's Complaint.

*Cross Country: Boys varsity team presented its first place district plaque to the school.

*Field Hockey: Seeking fans for today's quarterfinal match v. St. Joe at St. Joe at 3:00 pm.

*Holiday Program: Anyone who might want to submit a design for the holiday program tableau, should see Ms. Allison or Mr. Jones.

*Review: Meeting Thursday at 7:30 am in Dr. Des Prez's classroom.

Monday, November 3, 2008

THE WEEK

*Tuesday: late day

*Wednesday: college financial aid meeting for junior and senior parents

*Thursday: 7th and 8th grade dance

*Friday: school closed/offices open

ANNOUNCEMENTS

*Blue & Gold Dance: Invitations were placed on assembly seats of 10th, 11th and 12th graders. The dance is November 15.

*Dance Show: Meeting today in the dance studio for dancers and choreographers.

*JB TV: Meeting Wednesday at 7:30 am in Dr. Smith's classroom.

*Youth Orchestra: Don't miss JBS instrumentalists who will play at Powell Symphony Hall as part of the St. Louis Youth Symphony Orchestra on Sunday, November 9 at 3:00 pm.

CONGRATULATIONS

The boys' cross country team took first in district competition. Nick Evens won first place, Austin Allison sixth, Wyn Ferris eighth, Tim Ross ninth and Robbie Poepelmeier fourteenth. In the girls' competition, Rebecca McDonald took sixth, Devon Camp took fourteenth and Elise Riley took fifteenth. They're all headed to state competition.

ALMANAC READING

As he does at the beginning of each month, Dr. Shahan read from The Old Farmer's Almanac.

First a poem: The soft wind and the yellow leaves are having their last dance together. Then the forecast:

Rain descends like curtains closing a show: there's snow up north, but the south gets a hosing! Sunbeams on football teams; losers, winners shovel out, then shovel in turkey dinners!