

Make It an Evening!

A trio of on-campus events for parents, students, faculty/staff and friends

Montgomery Plan presents

Empty Bowls

5:30 to 7:30 pm

Friday, February 26

JBS Dining Room

A simple soup/chili dinner and silent auction of hand-crafted ceramic bowls, many of them crafted by student and faculty ceramicists

All proceeds benefit St. Louis Area Food Bank and Meds and Foods for Kids (a Haitian relief organization)

Minimum donation for the meal is $10.

Stamper Library and Left Bank Books present

Annual JBS Book Sale

During school hours and

From 7-8 pm

and during the intermission of "Kiss Me Kate"

Thursday-Saturday, February 25-27

Featuring books to suit all tastes, among them children's and young adult books and selections from the Family Network Book Club

A portion of the proceeds will benefit the library's
St. Louis writers collection and speaker series.

Cash, check and credit purchases only (no store carding)

JBS Players proudly present

"Kiss Me Kate"

8 pm

Thursday-Saturday, February 25-27

A play-within-a-play based on Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew"

Music and lyrics by Cole Porter

Tickets, which are $12, will be available in the Burroughs bookstore beginning February 18 and before each evening's performance.